

Tolle Lege Reading Challenge

“Take Up and Read”

Quid (What): Latin for “take up and read,” Tolle Lege is Arma Dei Academy’s February weekend reading challenge.

Qui (Who): Individual students and classes, grades K through five, compete to read the most minutes.

Cum (When): Every weekend in February.

Quare (Why): To develop life-long readers by immersing students and families in quality literature.

Ubi (Where): Snuggled up by the fire, in bed, in the car, at the library...the venues are endless!

Quam (How): Students read as much as they can Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of each week and log their minutes on the attached form. Forms must be signed and turned in by 8:15 Monday morning to the teacher of record in order for the minutes to be counted toward the class total. (Family reading counts too!)

Traveling Trophy: The class who reads the most minutes over the weekend will be awarded the traveling trophy. The traveling trophy will be passed along the following Monday to the class who wins the Tolle Lege Minute Challenge for that weekend.

Individual Winners: Each week the students reading the greatest number of minutes in their grade level will be recognized and honored in the classroom.

Certificates: Participants will be awarded certificates in chapel on Friday, March 18.
